Unit 1 Section 4 – Managing People

Quick-Fire & IAL-Style Teacher Pack

Section 1: Approaches to Staffing

- Quick Questions
    - • Define staffing [2].
    - • Explain what is meant by a flexible workforce [4].
    - • What is meant by staff turnover [2]?
    - • Explain the difference between full-time and part-time employment [4].
    - • Explain one reason why businesses use temporary workers [4].
    - • Define outsourcing [2].
    - • Explain one advantage of outsourcing [4].
    - • What is meant by employee empowerment [2]?
    - • Explain one benefit of employee empowerment [4].
    - • Why might a business use a multi-skilled workforce [4]?
- IAL-Style Exam Tasks
    - • Define the term flexible workforce [2].
    - • Explain one benefit of using part-time workers [4].
    - • Assess the advantages of a flexible workforce [6].
    - • Discuss whether outsourcing is beneficial for all businesses [8].
    - • Evaluate the impact of workforce flexibility on productivity [10].
- Plenary Question
    - • Is flexibility more beneficial for employers or employees? Justify.

Section 2: Staff as an Asset or Cost

- Quick Questions
    - • Define the term staff as an asset [2].
    - • Define the term staff as a cost [2].
    - • Explain one advantage of treating staff as an asset [4].
    - • Explain one disadvantage of treating staff as a cost [4].
    - • How can high labour turnover increase business costs [4]?
    - • Explain one benefit of investment in employee development [4].
    - • What is meant by employee engagement [2]?
    - • Explain how staff motivation affects business performance [4].
    - • What is meant by redundancy [2]?
    - • Explain one consequence of redundancies for businesses [4].

- IAL-Style Exam Tasks
  - • Define the term employee engagement [2].
  - • Explain one difference between treating staff as an asset and as a cost [4].
  - • Assess the benefits to a business of investing in employee development [6].
  - • Discuss the implications for a business of viewing staff as a cost [8].
  - • Evaluate the importance of staff engagement to business success [10].
- Plenary Question
  - • Is it realistic for all businesses to treat staff purely as an asset? Justify.

Section 3: Recruitment, Selection & Training

- Quick Questions
  - • Define recruitment [2].
  - • List two stages of the recruitment process [2].
  - • Explain one difference between internal and external recruitment [4].
  - • Define selection [2].
  - • Explain one benefit of a structured selection process [4].
  - • What is meant by induction training [2]?
  - • Explain one advantage of induction training [4].
  - • Explain the difference between on-the-job and off-the-job training [4].
  - • Explain one benefit of investing in training [4].
  - • Why is training important for employee retention [4]?
- IAL-Style Exam Tasks
  - • Define the term recruitment [2].
  - • Explain one benefit of external recruitment [4].
  - • Assess the advantages of on-the-job training [6].
  - • Discuss whether training always leads to higher motivation [8].
  - • Evaluate whether recruitment and training are the most important HR functions [10].
- Plenary Question
  - • Is training more valuable for employee motivation or productivity? Justify.

Section 4: Organisational Design & Structure

- Quick Questions
  - • Define organisational structure [2].
  - • Explain what is meant by a hierarchical structure [4].
  - • Explain what is meant by a flat structure [4].
  - • Define the term span of control [2].
  - • Explain the difference between centralisation and decentralisation [4].
  - • What is meant by delegation [2]?

- • Explain one benefit of delegation [4].
- • Explain how organisational design affects communication [4].
- • Explain one disadvantage of a narrow span of control [4].
- • Why might a business restructure its organisation [4]?

- IAL-Style Exam Tasks

  - • Define the term span of control [2].
  - • Explain one advantage of decentralisation [4].
  - • Assess how structure affects decision-making [6].
  - • Discuss whether a flat structure always improves communication [8].
  - • Evaluate the impact of organisational design on business performance [10].

- Plenary Question

  - • Is centralisation or decentralisation more effective in large organisations? Justify.

Section 5: Motivation (Maslow, Herzberg, Taylor)

- Quick Questions

  - • Define motivation [2].
  - • Explain Taylor's approach to motivation [4].
  - • Explain one limitation of Taylor's theory [4].
  - • List the five levels in Maslow's hierarchy of needs [4].
  - • Explain how a business might meet social needs in Maslow's hierarchy [4].
  - • Define Herzberg's motivators and hygiene factors [4].
  - • Give one example of a Herzberg motivator [2].
  - • Explain one way a business can use Herzberg's theory to improve motivation [4].
  - • Explain the difference between financial and non-financial motivators [4].
  - • Explain how motivation affects productivity [4].

- IAL-Style Exam Tasks

  - • Define the term motivation [2].
  - • Explain one advantage of using non-financial motivators [4].
  - • Assess the impact of Herzberg's two-factor theory on employee motivation [6].
  - • Discuss whether Maslow's hierarchy is still relevant in modern workplaces [8].
  - • Evaluate whether financial rewards are the most effective method of motivation [10].

- Plenary Question

  - • Which motivation theory do you think is most effective for improving performance? Justify.

Section 6: Leadership

- Quick Questions

  - • Define leadership [2].

- • List three leadership styles [2].
- • Explain the characteristics of an autocratic leader [4].
- • Explain the characteristics of a democratic leader [4].
- • Explain one advantage of laissez-faire leadership [4].
- • Explain one disadvantage of autocratic leadership [4].
- • What is meant by situational leadership [2]?
- • Explain how leadership style can affect employee motivation [4].
- • Explain one way leadership can affect business culture [4].
- • Why might leadership style need to change during business growth [4]?

- IAL-Style Exam Tasks

  - • Define the term leadership [2].
  - • Explain one benefit of democratic leadership [4].
  - • Assess how leadership style influences team performance [6].
  - • Discuss whether autocratic leadership is suitable for large organisations [8].
  - • Evaluate whether leadership style is the most important factor affecting business success [10].

- Plenary Question

  - • Which leadership style is most effective in motivating employees? Justify.