Unit 1 Section 5 – Entrepreneurs & Leaders

Topic 1: Role of the Entrepreneur

(copy directly into Word — it will keep structure and formatting)

Quick-Fire Questions

1. Define an entrepreneur [2]
2. Explain what is meant by enterprise [2]
3. Identify two roles of an entrepreneur when setting up a new business [2]
4. Explain how innovation contributes to business success [4]
5. What is meant by risk in business decision-making [2]?
6. Explain one way entrepreneurs deal with uncertainty [4]
7. Explain one reason why entrepreneurs are important to the economy [4]
8. Explain the difference between an entrepreneur and an intrapreneur [4]

IAL-Style Exam Tasks

- Define the term entrepreneur [2]
- Explain one role of an entrepreneur in developing a business idea [4]
- Assess the impact of innovation on business growth using examples such as Elon Musk (Tesla) or James Dyson (Dyson) [6]
- Discuss whether entrepreneurs are born or made, using examples such as Richard Branson (Virgin) and Levi Roots (Reggae Reggae Sauce) [8]
- Evaluate the importance of risk-taking for entrepreneurial success, referring to both short-term financial implications and long-term business growth [20]

Plenary Question

➡️ Is innovation or risk-taking more important to entrepreneurial success? Justify your answer with examples.

Teacher Notes (Suggested Examples for Discussion)

- Elon Musk (Tesla, SpaceX): exemplifies innovation and calculated risk-taking.

- Levi Roots (Reggae Reggae Sauce): opportunity spotting and resilience through external funding.
- Richard Branson (Virgin Group): diversification and leadership under uncertainty.

Would you like me to move on now and prepare Topic 2: Characteristics & Skills of Entrepreneurs in the same format (Quick-fire → IAL Tasks → Plenary → Examples)?

You said:

yes for topic 2

ChatGPT said:

Perfect ✅ — here's the full, formatted content for:

Unit 1 Section 5 – Entrepreneurs & Leaders

Topic 2: Characteristics and Skills of Entrepreneurs

(copy directly into Word — same structure as your other packs)

Quick-Fire Questions

1. Define an entrepreneurial characteristic [2]
2. Identify two key characteristics of a successful entrepreneur [2]
3. Explain what is meant by resilience in entrepreneurship [2]
4. Explain why creativity is an important skill for entrepreneurs [4]
5. What is meant by initiative [2]?
6. Explain one reason why communication skills are vital for entrepreneurs [4]
7. Explain one way that problem-solving skills can help an entrepreneur overcome challenges [4]
8. Explain how leadership skills can support business growth [4]

IAL-Style Exam Tasks

- Define the term entrepreneurial skill [2]
- Explain one reason why decision-making skills are important for entrepreneurs [4]

- Assess how effective communication and networking contribute to entrepreneurial success, using examples such as Richard Branson (Virgin) and Sara Blakely (Spanx) [6]
- Discuss whether creativity or resilience is more important for long-term entrepreneurial success [8]
- Evaluate the extent to which entrepreneurial characteristics determine business success compared to external market factors, using examples such as Elon Musk (Tesla) and Anita Roddick (The Body Shop) [20]

Plenary Question

➡️ Which is more important for entrepreneurial success — natural talent or learned skills? Justify your answer with examples.

Teacher Notes (Suggested Examples for Discussion)

- Richard Branson (Virgin Group): resilience and leadership under pressure.
- Sara Blakely (Spanx): perseverance, innovation, and problem-solving.
- Elon Musk (Tesla, SpaceX): high risk tolerance and visionary decision-making.
- Anita Roddick (The Body Shop): ethical leadership and social entrepreneurship.

Would you like me to move on and prepare Topic 3: Motives and Barriers to Entrepreneurship next (same format and style)?

You said:

this is good lets do topic 3 now

ChatGPT said:

Excellent ✅ — here's your full formatted content for:

Unit 1 Section 5 – Entrepreneurs & Leaders

Topic 3: Motives and Barriers to Entrepreneurship

(ready to copy into Word — same format as your other topics)

Quick-Fire Questions

1. Define entrepreneurial motive [2]
2. Identify one financial motive for starting a business [2]
3. Identify one non-financial motive for starting a business [2]
4. Explain what is meant by ethical motives [2]
5. Explain one reason why independence motivates entrepreneurs [4]
6. Explain one reason why personal satisfaction may drive entrepreneurship [4]
7. Define barriers to entrepreneurship [2]
8. Explain one financial barrier faced by new entrepreneurs [4]

IAL-Style Exam Tasks

- Define the term barriers to entrepreneurship [2]
- Explain one non-financial motive for becoming an entrepreneur [4]
- Assess how financial and non-financial motives influence entrepreneurs, using examples such as Anita Roddick (The Body Shop) and Levi Roots (Reggae Reggae Sauce) [6]
- Discuss whether barriers to entrepreneurship are more likely to be financial or personal in nature, using examples from start-ups in the UAE or UK [8]
- Evaluate the extent to which government support and access to finance can overcome barriers to entrepreneurship, using examples such as Virgin StartUp loans or Kickstarter funding [20]

Plenary Question

➡️ Are entrepreneurs more motivated by financial rewards or by personal independence? Justify your answer with examples.

Teacher Notes (Suggested Examples for Discussion)

- Anita Roddick (The Body Shop): motivated by ethical and environmental concerns.
- Levi Roots (Reggae Reggae Sauce): driven by personal passion and independence.
- Elon Musk (Tesla): motivated by innovation and long-term vision, despite financial risk.
- Sara Blakely (Spanx): motivated by personal problem-solving and achievement.